Show your wisdom, and business acumen. So the positive enthusiastic answer that you give will prove that you can add value to that already established organization. Firms are looking for consultants that the client will like. If you are a fresher : "As this is my start of a career, I can observe everyone from lower-level to upper-level employees. Working in Accenture lets me continue to learn and grow as I am going to be exposed to new technologies and varied business strategies on a continuous basis."Let's go ahead in this Accenture interview questions blog, and understand how to prepare for Accenture Technical Interview QuestionsPreparing for Accenture Technical Interview QuestionsQ1. It's like applying the Minto Principle, even though you don't have all the answers yet: If it's okay, would like to show what my initial thoughts are . These questions are meant to delve into areas that are most applicable to the role. As mentioned earlier Accenture is basically a high achieving service based company. Then, BBAM, time for case interviews. They will bill your time at $125-300 an hour. Assuming that the client needs to be 5-6x your bill rate in "value", you need consistently have $10,000 value days. Show that kind of value. One global network : Leveraging the power of global insight, relationships, collaboration and learning to deliver exceptional service to clients wherever they do business. Demonstrate "mental horsepower". You hear this phrase used A LOT by recruiting teams as they review resumes. Contain your accessories: Tuck them away during the interview. Too often, people get 80% of the content right, but they are rigid, unfriendly, awkward, or no fun. Even if you are thinking about 4P, 3C, 2×2 matrix, Porter's 5 forces, break-even formula, etc, you don't have to brag and tell them that you are doing that. Understand the format. Case interviews are different. They will usually have follow-up questions that come from discussions with the hiring managers. Either way, know the set up and be ready. Treat the interviewer like a client. How would you interview a client if she had all the answers? Add value. Ultimately, the firm wants to know whether you are someone they can hire, train for 1 month, then send to the client site. You can also apply on LinkedIn along with many third party job portals. Hoping this information covers all your doubts about Accenture Interview questions we wish you the best for your interview. Be curious. Consultants like to solve puzzles. Also, be calm when you move from one idea to another. To mitigate this, have a structure upfront which casts a wide net. What would that look like? You would likely be respectful, attentive, thoughtful, logical, and positive. Elements in array can be in any order.For example, if given array is [1, 23, 12, 9, 30, 2, 50] and you are asked for the largest 3 elements i.e., k = 3 then your program should print 50, 30 and 23.There are many methods to approach this problem.Method 11) Modify Bubble Sort to run the outer loop at most k times. 2) Print the last k elements of the array obtained in step 1. There is no exact right answer while you're answering this question, and it is always advisable to wisely, show them that you are aware of Accenture Core values and make the recruiters think that you are willing to know more about the company and invest yourself to the company. Since a class is a user-defined data type so an object can also be called a variable of that data type. This is a very important question that definitely will be asked in no matter what kind of interview or job description you select. When practicing, get feedback from your partners. Make sure to check out the video if you need to understand better. How you react in certain scenarios is critical to success. This is where your research will really pay off. No surprise, being likable is a key asset/skill that consultants use every day. To be even more direct, if the client does not like you, they will roll you off the project. In my previous experiences I have learnt and understood the skills that perfectly fits with the job description. To land a management consulting job at any of the top firms, including McKinsey, BCG, Bain, Deloitte, L.E.K., Oliver Wyman and Accenture, you must get through several rounds of case interviews.Whether your interview is in a few weeks or even tomorrow, this book is written to get you the maximum amount of knowledge in the least amount of time. What do the firms say? Firms want you to succeed. The last thing they want is for their partners / directors to sit through a series of painful, bad case interviews. If you come from social science, non-profits, or another function which has the reputation of being "soft" or non-quantitative, you will want to fortify that part of your resume and experience profile. Happy Learning! And hence, you're willing to actually dedicate yourself because there are most of the time, a person might go and apply for a company without knowing nothing about the company. Great side-by-side comparison. Structure the problem. Yes, know some of the basic frameworks. According to Naukri,com alone there are about 22574 job openings in Accenture for one time. I have interviewed dozens of MBA / undergraduate candidates, and of course, I have strong opinions, loosely held. Once you have started you will not even know when you would have aced it. If you exaggerate what you know, it will eventually show. Integrity : Being ethically unyielding and honest and inspiring trust by saying what we mean, matching our behaviors to our words and taking responsibility for our actions Stewardship : Fulfilling our obligation of building a better, stronger and more durable company for future generations, protecting the Accenture brand, meeting our commitment to stakeholders, acting with an owner mentality, developing our people and helping improve communities and the global environment.Let's go ahead in this Accenture interview questions blog, and understand the Interview Process in AccentureInterview Process in Accenture How to search and apply : It is always advisable to apply on Accenture Career website Focus on the jobs that excite you and match your skills, experience and aspirations as opposed to submitting lots of applications. Take what's useful and forget the rest. That should be your attitude. Be concise, but go into more detail if requested. The trick is to just start with your preparation. Behavioral interview : Many roles at Accenture require working closely with clients. To me that sounds crazy, but 1 person's opinion. . Case Interview Secrets, Victor Cheng (affiliate link) or Case in Point, Marc Consentino (affiliate link). Phone interview : When asked to give a high-level overview of your qualifications, be prepared to talk through your career history in a succinct manner. Write an efficient program for printing k largest elements in an array. Show your thinking. This is like math in high-school. 2. 18. What is operator overloading?Now this could be asked both in C++ and in Java.Operator Overloading is a very essential element to perform the operations on user-defined data types. Accenture embraces the power of change to create 360° value and shared success in India for their clients, people, shareholders, partners and communities. Do your homework: Understand the role for which you are applying, both the actual job and the overall company. Here, they want to hear about your previous roles, why you left and what you've done in your career that relates to the job for which you are applying. Sometimes they don't. Whether you get the offer or not, you can be more of a consultant in everything you do. Well, sounds like the Southern region has a lot of margin issues. 10. 2) Find the smallest element in temp[], let the smallest element be min. That's kind of like telling your date, "I am going to hold you hand know." Awkward. Something like brand name, your work life balance, colleagues, work environment, quality of work, and many more such reasons. A class is a user-defined data type that has data members and member functions. Now as a part of Accenture one needs to know that they strictly stick to their core values. Have questions ready: The majority of the time, your interviewer will allow time for questions. 17. Having studied good about Accenture it will make the recruiter think that you are invested in learning about the company's goals and achievements, hence it is important to mention main points. I have seen it happen many times. 7. The recruiter here is looking at the way you handle your risk and is also looking forward to how you will be handling going forward if you are recruited for Accenture. Develop 1 real relationship. Take the opportunity to mention that it's an area in which you would like to grow your skillset. If possible, transition between the ideas seamless: Now that we have discussed revenues, both price and quantity, let's move to the cost side Well, it looks like there is not a lot of cost savings on the supplier side, can we move over to process? These are some of the main goals of Accenture which helped them reach to a height where they are today." Tell me about the time when you took risk at work This is a very tricky question here. What do you think are the three qualities to work at Accenture? Don't treat it like a performance test, or trial. Be. Do. Say. For me, I believe consulting is an attitude (curiosity to solve problems and help people), drive (to get things done), and relationships (nothing gets done without people). It looks like this.1) clear, persuasive cover letter, 2) a well-organized resume, 3) great first interview, 4) great second case interview, 5) productive internship 6) full-time offer. It is very vital that you say all the goals and achievements by the Accenture as a company, so that this will make them understand that you have learned everything about Accenture. Management Consulted has a 45min case example below. here. 13. Is there any information on competitive pricing? Or, even better, relate your experiences to the role for which you are applying. I interviewed at several firms, and worked at a Big Four consulting firm for 5 years, then healthcare consulting for 6 years. There is one huge upside. If they did not choose you – HELL – they don't deserve you. An object is an instance of a class. Summarize your findings as you go – give the interviewer some confidence that you have a plan. "Everybody is a genius. Be authentic. It is important to have a question ready to ask! Not one that has already been answered, but one that demonstrates your insightfulness and interest in the position.Finally, we have come to end of the content here. Skills interview : Here always have examples to share. Adding on, you can also include your colleague or co-worker that basically you overpowered while achieving the same. 11. 3-a) For each element x in arr[k] to arr[n-1]. O(n-k) If x is greater than the min then remove min from temp[] and insert x. Show your comfort working with numbers. Also along with that, do your research know about Accenture and give your answers accurately. If you are uncomfortable and forced, so is the other person. Would you pass the airport test. 14. Don't force-fit a solution. Hence it is very important that you do not start with the negative scenario or situation and you also have to consider your strengths which worked in your favor. Be confident; you have a lot to offer. Put the ideas in buckets. Read some white papers to get a sense of the work. Exemplary Answer: "I am a highly motivated and goal-oriented person who strongly believes that significant progress in an organization like Accenture can be achieved, only if everyone in the team is working in the same direction. The only thing you should bring is something to take notes. Adding on my reviews, on my performance by my previous managers showcase that I am an apt candidate who is willing to give the best to an established and high-achieving organization like Accenture you are." Here you have covered everything that you want to cover about company about yourself, and how you can contribute to the company, this way you have given brief description about yourself. It's your job to politely, effectively, logically, tease out answers to questions which allow you to piece together a thoughtful, fun and realistic solution. Do the basic research. Think about your accomplishments, the role requirements and your personal aspirations—and determine how you might work them into the conversation appropriately. Now, make sure you don't keep repeating your sentences, which is very important while you're giving such answers. Why do you want to join extension? Exemplary Answer: "While I was working on a project that had a tight deadline and an issue was to be solved by one of my coworker, I had to do it in his absence and I put in extra time even on the weekends to learn the requirement and understand the concept and to meet the deadline. If we want the output sorted then O((n-k)*k + k*log(k))Method 31) Sort the elements in descending order in O(n*log(n)) 2) Print the first k numbers of the sorted array O(k).#include using namespace std; void kLargest(int arr[], int n, int k) {sort(arr, arr + n, greater());for (int i = 0; i < k; i++)   cout i=i; } complex(){} void displaydata(){ cout
