1972 film directed by Ronald Neame The Poseidon Adventure Theatrical poster by Mort Künstler Directed by Ronald Neame Screenplay by Silliphant Wendell Mayes Based on Paul Gallico's The Poseidon Adventure Produced by Irwin Allen Starring Gene Hackman Ernest Borgnine Red Buttons Carol Lynley Shelley Winters Roddy McDowall Stella Stevens Jack Albertson Pamela Martin Shea Leslie Nielsen Byron Webster Cinematography Harold E. Stine Edited by Harold F. Kress Music by John Williams Production Companies Kent Productions, Ltd. Distributed by the 20th Century-Fox Data Release on 12 December 1972 (1972-12) Running time 117 minutes United States Sights Lingua Budget $4.7 million [1] Box office He has an ensemble cast including five Oscar winners: Gene Hackman, Ernest Borgnine, Jack Albertson, Shelley Winters and Red Buttons. The plot focuses on the SS Poseidon, a luxury liner aging on its latest trip from New York City to Athens before it is broken. On the eve of New Year's Eve, it is overturned by a tsunami. Passengers and crew are trapped inside, and a preacher attempts to lead a small group of security survivors. It is in the vein of other star disaster films of the early 1970s such as the airport (1970), the earthquake (1974), and the Towering Hell (1974). It was released in December 1972 and was the biggest growth film in 1973, earning over $125 million worldwide. He won two Oscars, [3] a Golden Globe Award, a British Academy Film Award and a Motion Picture Sound Editors Award. [4] A sequel, Beyond the Poseidon Adventure, also based on a Gallico novel, was published in 1979. Trama The SS Poseidon, a transatlantic waiting for retirement, is traveling from New York to Athens. Despite the Captain's security, the representative of the new owner insists that Complete speed to save money, preventing Poseidon from taking the ballast. Reverend Scott, a minister who believes "God helps those who help themselves", is traveling in a new parish in Africa as a punishment for the opinions of him not orthodox. The nent detective Rogo and wife Linda, a precedent prostitute, faces her seasickness. Susan Shelby and his younger brother Robin are traveling to meet with their parents, who are on vacation in Greece. Susan has a cotta for Scott while Robin is interested in how the ship works and frequently visit the engine room. Hebrew store owner Manny Rosen and wife, beautiful, are going to Israel to meet the 2-year niece for the first time. Haberda Sher James Martin is a loving and aware of health bachelor. The ship's singer, Nonnie Parry, try for the celebration of the New Year. Passengers come together in the walk room to celebrate. The captain is called the bridge in response to a relationship of a submarine earthquake. He receives words from the research that a tsunami is approaching the direction of Crete. He emits a Mayday rescue signal. The ship is struck alongside and understood, floating upside down. In the dining room, the survivors take stock of their situation. A crepi, a wounded waiter, is trapped at the galley door now up above. At the Martin prompt, Scott determines that the escape route will be found "upwards" to the external hull, now above the water. Robin tells him that the hull near the propeller tree is only 1 inch (3 inches) often. Scott tries to convince the dozens of survivors in the dining room to travel with him to the ship's hull. However, the ship's pursuer tells them to wait for help. Most survivors the à
